Preparing for the Naturalization Test

A Pocket Study Guide

Are you thinking about applying for naturalization?

This pocket study guide will help you prepare for the naturalization test. If you were not born in the United States, naturalization is the way that you can voluntarily become a U.S. citizen. To become a naturalized U.S. citizen, you must pass the naturalization test. We've provided you with the civics test questions and answers, and the reading and writing vocabulary to help you study.

To learn about and study for the civics portion of the naturalization test, turn to page 5.

To learn about and study for the English portion of the naturalization test, turn to page 27.

You can find more resources to help you prepare in the back of the study guide on page 36.

General Eligibility Requirements

Before you apply for naturalization, you must meet a few requirements. Depending on your situation, different requirements may apply to you. Below is a list of the general eligibility requirements.

- Be at least 18 years old at the time you file Form N-400, Application for Naturalization.
- Be a permanent resident (have a “Green Card”) for at least five years.
- Show that you have lived for at least three months in the state or USCIS district where you apply.
- Demonstrate continuous residence in the United States for at least five years immediately preceding the date of filing Form N-400.
- Show that you have been physically present in the United States for at least 30 months out of the five years immediately preceding the date of filing Form N-400.
- Be able to read, write, and speak basic English.
- Have a basic understanding of U.S. history and government (civics).
- Be a person of good moral character.
- Demonstrate an attachment to the principles and ideals of the U.S. Constitution.

For more information, visit A Guide to Naturalization at www.uscis.gov/natzguide.

Citizenship Rights and Responsibilities

Citizenship offers many benefits and equally important responsibilities. When you naturalize, you agree to accept all of the responsibilities of becoming a U.S. citizen. You agree to support the United States, its Constitution, and its laws. In return, you gain all the rights and privileges of citizenship such as the right to vote and travel with a U.S. passport.

The Naturalization Test

During your naturalization interview, a USCIS officer will ask you questions about your application and background. You will also take an English and civics test unless you qualify for an exemption or waiver.

English Test

The English test has three components: reading, writing, and speaking. For the reading test, you must read one out of three sentences correctly to demonstrate an ability to read in English. There is a reading vocabulary list on page 28 with all the words found in the English reading portion of the naturalization test.

For the writing test, you must write one out of three sentences correctly to demonstrate an ability to write in English. There is a writing vocabulary list on page 31 with all the words found in the English writing portion of the naturalization test.

Your ability to speak English is determined by the USCIS officer based on your answers to questions normally asked during the naturalization interview.

Civics Test

The civics test covers important U.S. history and government topics. There are 100 civics questions on the naturalization test. During your naturalization interview, you will be asked up to 10 questions from the list of 100 questions. You must answer correctly 6 of the 10 questions to pass the civics test.

Retaking the Naturalization Test

You have two opportunities to take the English and civics tests per application. If you fail any portion of the test during your first interview, you will be retested on the portion of the test that you failed at a second interview. USCIS will schedule you to return to be retested between 60 and 90 days after the date of your initial interview.

Exceptions

Certain applicants, because of age and time as a permanent resident, are exempt from the English requirements for naturalization and may take the civics test in the language of their choice. For more information, visit www.uscis.gov/citizenship.

Study Materials for the Civics Portion of the Naturalization Test

Civics (History and Government) Questions for the Naturalization Test

The 100 civics (history and government) questions and answers for the naturalization test are listed on the following pages. The civics test is an oral test and the USCIS officer will ask you up to 10 of the 100 civics questions. You must answer 6 out of 10 questions correctly to pass the civics portion of the naturalization test.

Some answers may change because of elections or appointments. As you study for the test, make sure that you know the most current answers to these questions. Answer these questions with the name of the official who is serving at the time of your eligibility interview with USCIS. The USCIS officer will not accept an incorrect answer.

Although USCIS is aware that there may be additional correct answers to the 100 civics questions, you are encouraged to respond to the civics questions using the answers provided in this pocket study guide.

65/20 Civics Test Exemption

If you are 65 years old or older and have been a legal permanent resident of the United States for 20 or more years, you may study just the questions that have been marked with an asterisk (*).

Study Materials for the English Portion of the Naturalization Test

English Test

According to the law, an applicant must demonstrate “an understanding of the English language, including an ability to read, write, and speak...simple words and phrases...in ordinary usage in the English language.”

This means that you must be able to read, write, and speak basic English in order to be eligible for naturalization. You are required to pass each of the three components of the English test.

Reading Portion

Each reading test administered to you will contain no more than three sentences. You must read one out of three sentences correctly to demonstrate an ability to read in English.

To help you prepare, see the reading vocabulary list on page 28 containing all the words found in the English reading portion of the naturalization test. The content focuses on civics and history topics.

Writing Portion

To test your ability to write in English, you must write one out of three sentences correctly in order to demonstrate an ability to write in English.

To help you prepare, see the writing vocabulary list on page 31 containing all the words found in the English writing portion of the naturalization test. The content focuses on civics and history topics.

Speaking Portion

At your naturalization interview, a USCIS officer will determine your ability to speak English.
